

Accessibility Statement

General

Adderley Parish Council strives to ensure that its services are accessible to people with disabilities and has invested in resources to help ensure that its website is made easier to use and more accessible for people with disabilities, with the strong belief that every person has the right to live with dignity, equality, comfort and independence.

Accessibility on this website

Adderley Parish Council makes available the Free Website Accessibility Widget that is powered by a dedicated accessibility server. The software allows Adderley Parish Council to improve compliance with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG 2.1).

Enabling the Accessibility Menu

Adderley Parish Council's accessibility menu can be enabled by clicking the accessibility menu icon that appears on the right of the page. After triggering the accessibility menu, please wait a moment for the accessibility menu to load in its entirety.

Disclaimer

Adderley Parish Council continues its efforts to constantly improve the accessibility of this website and services in the belief that it is our collective moral obligation to allow seamless accessible and unhindered use also for those of us with disabilities.

Despite our efforts to make all pages and content on this website fully accessible, some content may not have yet been fully adapted to the strictest accessibility standards. This may be a result of not having found or identified the most appropriate technological solution.
